The ultimate pocket guide for antibiotic pharmacotherapy contest

Introduction

Dear EPSA Members,

EPSA has prepared for you the “Ultimate pocket guide for antibiotic pharmacotherapy contest”. We invite all EPSA Members to participate in the competition which aims at raising awareness about the proper use of antibiotics by creating the pocket guide for antibiotic pharmacotherapy directed to the patients. Next to upgrading your creativity skills, you will join us in the fight against antimicrobial resistance. We are looking forward to seeing your projects!

Best wishes,

EPSA Educational Department 2021/2022

Timeline

11.11.21 Call for submission

19.11.21 Deadline for the work submission

20.11.21 Announcement of the best projects

24.11.21 Announcement of the winners

Eligibility

All EPSA Members willing to create original pocket guides for antibiotic pharmacotherapy directed to the patients. One pocket guide can be prepared by a maximum of 3 people.

Criteria

The pocket guides will be judged on the following:

- Length: All works must be no longer than two pages.

- Format: pdf
- Relevance: The works must cover at least one of the following topics:
  - 1) guidelines for antibiotic pharmacotherapy
  - 2) the role of pharmacists in the antibiotic pharmacotherapy
  - 3) the importance of following general principles of antimicrobial therapy
- Originality: The works should be informative, creative, innovative, inspiring.
- Compliance: All submissions must be sent on pubsoc@epsa-online.org by the 19th of November 24:00 CET.

Judging

A committee, made up of Educational Department Coordinators and the Vice President of Education will judge the work entries based on the criteria. The three final pocket guides will be then shared on EPSA's social media platforms. The final works will be voted on by the public on EPSA's social media and the winning pocket guide will be the one with the biggest number of likes on both Instagram and Facebook. The second first-place winner of the contest will be voted on by the EPSA Team based on the criteria. Both winning works will be announced through EPSA's social media on the 24th of November, 2021. The winners will receive special prizes. All participants of the contest will receive certificates of participation.
